Lessons from the book of Exodus

Week #18: Love Neighbor- Care for the poor

Exodus 21:1-6

These are the laws you are to set before them: <sup>2</sup>“If you buy a Hebrew servant, he is to serve you for six years. But in the seventh year, he shall go free, without paying anything. <sup>3</sup>If he comes alone, he is to go free alone; but if he has a wife when he comes, she is to go with him. <sup>4</sup>If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall belong to her master, and only the man shall go free. <sup>5</sup>“But if the servant declares, ‘I love my master and my wife and children and do not want to go free,’ <sup>6</sup> then his master must take him before the judges. He shall take him to the door or the doorpost and pierce his ear with an awl. Then he will be his servant for life.

Deut. 15:12-18

If any of your people—Hebrew men or women—sell themselves to you and serve you six years, in the seventh year you must let them go free. <sup>13</sup> And when you release them, do not send them away empty-handed. <sup>14</sup> Supply them liberally from your flock, your threshing floor and your winepress. Give to them as the LORD your God has blessed you. <sup>15</sup> Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you. That is why I give you this command today. <sup>16</sup> But if your servant says to you, “I do not want to leave you,” because he loves you and your family and is well off with you, <sup>17</sup> then take an awl and push it through his earlobe into the door, and he will become your servant for life. Do the same for your female servant. <sup>18</sup> Do not consider it a hardship to set your servant free, because their service to you these six years has been worth twice as much as that of a hired hand. And the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

Exodus 21:7-11

If a man sells his daughter as a servant, she is not to go free as male servants do. <sup>8</sup> If she does not please the master who has selected her for himself, he must let her be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to foreigners, because he has broken faith with her. <sup>9</sup> If he selects her for his son, he must grant her the rights of a daughter. <sup>10</sup> If he marries another woman, he must not deprive the first one of her food, clothing and marital rights. <sup>11</sup> If he does not provide her with these three things, she is to go free, without any payment of money.

Lev. 19:8-10

When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. <sup>10</sup> Do not go over your vineyard a second time or pick up the grapes that have fallen. Leave them for the poor and the foreigner. I am the LORD your God.
